Foreword

We, the students of Benton Heights High School graduating class of 1957, find it difficult to say good-bye to the joys and hardships we have experienced here. In the future, after we take our respective places in society, we will be compelled to look backward to the years of fullness behind us. These years have been full of activities which we have tried to capture in this edition of "The Heights."

We sincerely hope that in this book those memories of our class will never be forgotten.

Editor-in-Chief

Dedication

The dedication of "The Heights" is the highest honor that the seniors can bestow upon a person. Therefore we proudly dedicate the 1957 edition of "The Heights" to Mrs. Betty L. Morgan, who has faithfully guided us through part of our most trying years.

Dear Seniors:

As you plan to leave these classrooms by way of graduation, let me wish for you a full and fruitful life. You have made great contributions to the enrichment of our school life and our school activities. You have tasted victory and you have felt the pangs of defeat. Through these experiences I trust you have developed emotionally, socially, and your educational horizon has been broadened. As you enter a new phase of education and life, I hope you will live abundantly in your service to others. I am sure that you have become a part of the best we have been able to give you. I believe that in the future you will share those experiences in service to those about you. Farewell and good sailing and may your best dreams come true.

Class Poem

SUCCESS

These last four years of our lore
Have been guided by capable hands of yore,
And many an unseen more.
But shall we close the door?

No, we shall open and step outside,
For things we've learned we do not hide.
But yet the opposite do abide,
And at us let the world be mystified.

At this door we find a path.
The path so often trod.
This path we shall apply to life,
A gift that comes from God.

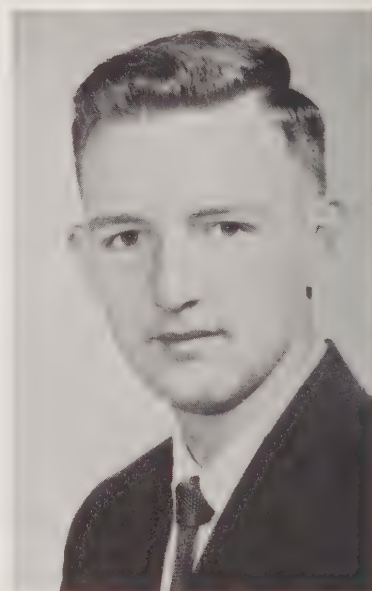

As we go along this way,
We pass the field of time,
And in the middle one day,
We see a flower kind.

But we do not dare to pluck,
For this we've learned is bad.
For people of lesser luck,
May see and be made glad.

Another great lesson we were taught,
As we strode on down this way,
Was grasp everthing of good we ought
Each and every day.

But what has this taught us?
In this time of world distrust.
It has taught us to love each other,
As well as our own blood brother.

Class History

In 1945 a group of eager anticipating little children presented themselves for admittance to the Benton Heights School. We each had come from our own small world to begin what we had often heard our parents refer to as "Our Education." We were excited over the prospects of what we were going to learn at school. The excitement has never dwindled during these twelve years. However, it has often been excitement over the knowledge we lacked, but gradually acquired.

Through the Primary and Grammar grades we were guided and urged on by:

Mrs. Lydia B. Griffin, Mrs. Baxter Benton, Mrs. Dayle Moore, Mrs. Margaret Myres, Mrs. Mark Lemmond, Mrs. Annie Helms, Miss Mildred Outen, Miss Annie Williams, Miss Pat Benton, Mrs. Irma Broome, Miss Margaret Love, Mrs. Mattie Cobb, Miss Christine Whitley, Mrs. Virginia Smith, and Mr. James McQuage.

After the eight years of preparation we were ready to begin our Freshman year in High School. Our sponsors, Mrs. B. B. Craig and Mrs. N. B. Nicholson helped us through the difficulties of this introductory period. Lynette Carroll and Bill Simpson were our student Council Representatives. Jerry Little was class President.

All of us were eager to begin our sophomore year. Unfortunately, on a November morning we saw only the remains of our school after a raging fire; but our sponsors, Mr. Richard G. Hamilton and Mr. Everette E. Hatley encouraged us to continue even though conditions were very poor. Lynette Carroll was Student Council Secretary and Brenda Helms and Pat Secrest were Representatives. Betty Ann Hall was Class President. Shirley Anderson, Lynette Carroll, Betty Ann Hall, Phyllis Huneycutt, Bobbie Jean Mullis and James Pressley were initiated into the Beta Club.

Our Junior year began in a modern new building. Mrs. Betty L. Morgan, our sponsor, was always interested in our accomplishments, as well as making our Junior year a happy memory. Receiving our class rings, the Junior play, and entertaining the Class of 1956 at the Junior-Senior Banquet were the most outstanding memories of our Junior year. Class officers were: President, Jim Moody; Vice President, Pat Secrest; Secretary, Brenda Helms; Reporter, James Pressley. Pat Secrest was Vice President of the Student Council. Bobbie Jean Mullis and James Pressley were our Representatives.

We pause here at our final step. We are now "Dignified Seniors." Class officers are: President, Bobbie Jean Mullis; Vice President, Jerry Little; Secretary, Brenda Helms; Treasurer, Pat Secrest; Reporter, James Pressley; Parliamentarian, Johnny Gordon; Historian, Martha Wiley; Social Chairman, Carolyn Simpson. Pat Secrest was elected Student Council President. Lynette Carroll and Edward Pressley were our Representatives. Our burdens have been light because our hearts have been happy looking forward to graduation, our trip to Washington, and many other activities of the year. Mrs. Linda F. Hilton has been our kind and understanding sponsor. She has made the last of our twelve years in school the happiest and one we shall never forget.

Through these twelve years Mr. O. W. Broome, our principal has watched over us faithfully, forgiving our mistakes, and impressing upon us that we must keep a high standard of goodness, truth, and efficiency, but never forgetting to praise our accomplishments.

As we separate and go out into the world we will give to the world the best we have and may the best come back to us.

MARTHA WILEY, Historian

Prophecy

After coming in from a hard day at the office, I sat down in a comfortable chair. I was so exhausted that I fell asleep and while sleeping I had a vision of my classmates.

Ten years have passed and each of them seem to be doing fine. From this vision I saw the success and achievement that each member of our Class of "57" has worked so hard to obtain.

Sara Bass has traded her Oldsmobile in for a new Cadillac and is driving it on a tour of the United States and Canada.

Kizzie Braswell is now happily married and is busy raising her three little Kizzies.

Carole Broome has worked her way up and is now Efird's Department Store's most valuable sales clerk.

Richard Broome is still working hard on finding a way to keep from working.

Lynette Carroll and Jackie are busy trying to teach their children some of the cheers she used in her school days.

Helen Crooke has a full time job trying to keep Don under control.

Barbara Ferguson and Herbert are married and she is living at Lowry Air Force Base with him.

Linda Funderburk still hasn't decided which fellow she is going to marry, since they all seem so charming.

Johnny Gordon is now working for himself and doing well at Gordon's Funeral Home.

Larry Hammill has just completed a new super highway from Mathews to Indian Trail.

Brenda Helms is busy amusing twelve children at her Day Nursery. (Four of which are hers and Jerry's.)

Mary Holmes and Bobby are living in Florida at the Present; but they are moving to New York in a month, since his work requires travel.

Phyllis Honeycutt has a good position on the Nurses' staff at Union Memorial Hospital.

Jerry Little has moved up and is now manager of Thrifty Food Store.

Faynell Medlin is the prominent author of the volume of books entitled "How To Be Quite In Class."

Jim Moody is working hard trying to please the public at Moody's Theater. (Once known as the Center Theater.)

Bobbie Jean Mullis is putting her nurse's training to good use in raising her four little brown-eyed boys.

Edith Anne Poplin is a regular passenger on J. T.'s bus.

Arvil (Mouse) Pressley is no longer washing cars because he is now the happy owner of Mouse's Service Center.

Edward Pressley has made a name for himself; he is now conducting his own band.

James Pressley now has his doctor's degree and has recently been accepted on the staff of the Mayo Clinic.

Buren (Pete) Price is living up to his name of class wolf; he is watching all the girls go by while he works at Wilson's Grocery Store.

Pat Secrest has just completed his first book of poetry entitled "Poems To Make You Laugh."

Bill Simpson's hard work has paid off; he now has a business of his own.

Carolyn Simpson is keeping herself busy with hers and Johnny's children and helping Johnny at the Funeral home.

Jimmy Small has taken over his Daddy's service station and has added a few chain stores around the country.

Anne Tarlton is helping to beautify our world at Rorie's Beauty Salon.

Evelyn Taylor, who once entertained her fourth period study hall, now has her own rock and roll show.

J. T. Taylor is the "number one" bus driver for Queen City Trailways Bus Line.

Martha Wiley recently returned from a trip to New York where she bought Ladies wearing apparel for Belk Brothers Store.

Last Will and Testament

ARTICLE I

To Mr. Broome and the faculty we leave our undying appreciation for the guidance and the effort to increase our wisdom, which they have given us these past years.

ARTICLE II

To the undergraduates: To the junior class we leave our Senior home room and all the activities we have enjoyed this year. To the sophomores and freshmen, we leave the future of our Alma Mater.

ARTICLE III

Individual request: During our past happy school years we have accumulated some well-known articles which we now would like to bestow upon specific underclassmen. They are as follows:

Evelyn Taylor leaves her ability to imitate Elvis Pressley to Lynn Staton.

Edith Ann Poplin and J. T. Taylor leave their superlative "Friendliest" to Norma Rae Cox.

Arvil Pressley leaves his superlative "Best Sport" to Robert Weir. (and Steve Tsitouris.)

Barbara Ferguson leaves her title "Class Baby" to Mollie Helms.

Kizzie Braswell leaves her bashful ways to Diane Braswell.

Carole Broome leaves "Most Original" to Betty Broome.

Helene Crooke leaves her flirty ways to Patsy Pressley, and her love for the old Charlotte Highway to Coleen Derrick.

James Pressley wills his love for French to Whitty Broome, and his seat in English to whoever is crazy enough to take it.

Brenda Helms leaves her shorthand book to Coleen Derrick and her title "Peppiest" to Martha Shannon.

Lynette Carroll leaves her superlatives, "Neatest" to Linda Tucker and "Cutest" to Henrietta Bowers.

Jerry Little leaves his superlative, "Neatest" to Clark Rummage and his ability to play third base to anyone who wants the "hot-box."

Edward Pressley leaves his good looks to Whitty Broome and his love for English to Kay Hilton.

Linda Funderburke leaves her position in the band as majorette to "Deanie" Simpson.

Sara Bass leaves her unselfish ways to Kay Hilton, and her love for shorthand to Linda Tucker.

Johnny Gordon leaves his love for Harris Well's Funeral Home to Don Ray Rummage.

Phyllis Huneycutt leaves her French book to her sister Brinda and her love for Helms' to Judy Deal.

Pat Secrest leaves his love for "Moon Pies" to Ronald Helms.

Bobbie Jean Mullis leaves her superlatives "Best Personality" to Henrietta Bowers, and "Most Capable" to Sylvia Teagle.

Bill Simpson leaves his ability to get to school on time to brother Mickey.

Faynell Medlin leaves her quiet disposition to Jane Hedgepath.

"Pete" Price leaves his "wolfish" ideas to Robbie Wier.

Larry Hammill leaves his bashful ways to Tex Rape.

Martha Wiley leaves her superlative "Most Dignified" to Kay Hilton.

Betty Ann Hall leaves her position as guard on the basketball team to Alice Sells.

Mary Holmes leaves her walk to Judy Bivens, and her position on the basketball court to Hilda Wooten.

Anne Tarlton Leaves her ability to get along with the Prospect boys to Doris Henderson.

Richard Broome leaves his superlative "Laziest" to Ray Thompson.

Jim Moody leaves his love for basketball to Winston Dean.

I, Carolyn Simpson, leave my seat in Mrs. Nick's study hall to Brenda Griffin, but everything else I take with me.
